Write a letter to Miguel Leonis and tell him about what his land looks like today. Think of something that you would really like to know that you could ask Miguel. Include that question in your letter.

Dear Miguel Leonis,

_______________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

Sincerely,

_________________________